Ps: I am fine, thank you. So-so. Very well, thank you.

T: The topic of our lesson is:

We are going to talk about reasons for learning English.

So I can say that the role of English in the modern world is great. It's important and popular to know English. Some people learn the English language because they need it for their work; others travel abroad, for third studying English is a hobby. Everyone, who knows English can speak to people from other countries, read foreign authors in the original, which makes your outlook wider. The English language helps people to work together. It is the language of international communication, culture and friendship. Today we are going have some tasks in reading and listening comprehension, speak about professions dealing with English, and get some new information. So, we'll speak about English. The motto of our today's lesson is “English is the key which opens the door to the world”.
